Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on November 9, 2004 has been entered.

Examiner's Amendment

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

This examiner's amendment updates the continuation data in the specification.

3. The application has been amended as follows:

In the specification:

line 1, after "09/280,056", insert – now US patent 6,270,207, --.

Reasons For Allowance

4. The combination or method as claimed wherein an ink cartridge including a pressure reduction hole directly communicating with a first chamber (claim 1) or one end of the atmosphere connection chamber communicates with the ink chamber on the first surface side to communicate air between the ink chamber and the atmosphere connection chamber, and the other end of the atmosphere connection chamber communicates with the outside of the case (claim 51) or wherein a part of the path is directly above a part of a lower surface of the cover (claims 53, 66) or one end of the atmosphere connection path communicates with the other end of the first chamber for communicating substantially only air between the atmosphere connection path and the first chamber via the second partitioning wall and the other end of the atmosphere connection path is open to the outside of the case (claim 56) or a second partitioning wall for dividing the ink chamber into a first chamber for accommodating a porous material absorbing ink and a second chamber holding ink, wherein one of the first chamber and the second chamber is covered by the first cover and the other of the chambers is covered by the second cover (claim 71) or joining a cover which is separate from the case to the case at the second surface for covering the second surface (claims 72, 73) is not disclosed, suggested, or made obvious by the prior art of record.
